

Ikaria the island of Icarus

Ikaria is a Greek island of the eastern Aegean. Is a very popular island about its thermal springs and its traditional festivals.

Where to stay : You can stay at Erofilo, Anemi Apartments, Ikaria Studios, Filiopi, Ikaros or at the luxury Cavos bay hotel.

What to see: You can see the goddess Artemis temple, Koskinas castle, Drakano, the house that the famous composer Mikis Theodorakis was exiled and the Thermal springs at Therma.

- Where / What to eat: You can eat at the restaurants Atsaxa, Marathiti, Sotiris, Mary Mary, Plaka, Stous Vrakades, Filitsa, Arodou. You can try all the local foods such as wild goat named "rasko", kathoura cheese, sofiko, sweet pumpkin pie, mageirio.
- Where to shop: You can go for shopping at Raxes, Armenistis, Agios Kirikos or Evidilos
- What to buy: You can buy various souvenirs or traditional products such as the local wines named "pramnios oinos", filaki which is a traditional bag made from goats' leather, local biological honey etc.
- Where to have fun: you can have fun at the traditional festivals which are taking place in many villages of the island with traditional local music, food and wine.

